NOTICE ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA PURSUANT TO ARTICLE 13 OF REGULATION (EU) 2016/679

In compliance with the provisions of the European Regulation on the protection of personal data 2016/679 (GDPR) and Italian Legislative Decree No. 196, 30 June 2003 (Privacy Code), as amended by Legislative Decree No. 101, 10 August 2018, aimed at protecting the fundamental rights and freedoms of natural persons, in particular the right to personal data protection, we hereby inform you about personal data processing in relation to the event "Close to Youth - Co-designing the next generation of Interreg programmes", which will take place in person in Trieste (Italy) on 17 November 2026, as part of the implementation activities of the Interreg VI-A Italy-Slovenia 2021-2027 Programme.
The methods described herein refer specifically and exclusively to the activities connected to the above-mentioned event.

Data controller	The data controller is the Autonomous Region Friuli Venezia Giulia, represented by the President as legal representative of the organisation. Contact details: Piazza dell'Unità d'Italia 1, 34121 Trieste, Italy. Certified e-mail address (PEC): regione.friuliveneziagiulia@certregione.fvg.it
Data Protection Officer	The Data Controller makes use of a Data Protection Officer (DPO) for the management of all tasks related to the processing and storage of personal data. The DPO can be contacted by writing to the e-mail address: privacy@regione.fvg.it, or via certified e-mail (PEC): privacy@certregione.fvg.it, or by addressing the communication to the attention of the DPO at the following address: Autonomous Region Friuli Venezia Giulia – Piazza dell'Unità d'Italia 1, 34121 Trieste, Italy. The DPO may be contacted for any request concerning the exercise of rights, issues of transparency, or clarifications regarding the present data processing.
Personal data processor pursuant to Article 28 paragraph 1 of the GDPR	The Data Controller engages third parties that have been formally appointed as Data Processors pursuant to Article 28 of the GDPR for activities strictly necessary to the organisation of the event. These may include, where involved in supporting the Interreg VI-A Italy-Slovenia 2021-2027 Programme, Insiel S.p.A., which provides IT services and digital infrastructure management, as well as service providers responsible for institutional communication activities. These parties process personal data solely based on the instructions provided by the Data Controller and in full compliance with the applicable data protection legislation.

Purpose and legal basis of data processing	The personal data provided at the time of registration (e.g. first name, last name, institution/organization, e-mail address, any organizational requirements), as well as images, photographs, and audio-video recordings collected during the in-person event, are processed by the Data Controller or by authorized personnel in the performance of tasks carried out in the public interest, specifically for the following purposes: • registration and management of participation in the in-person event; • organizational and logistical communications (before, during, and after the event); • institutional documentation and communication relating to the event (production of images/photos/recordings and their publication on the official channels of the Interreg Italy-Slovenia Programme and/or of the Autonomous Region Friuli Venezia Giulia, including institutional websites and social media); • possible production and sending via e-mail of a certificate of attendance; • assessment of participants' satisfaction feedback at the end of the event. As part of the event, photographs and audiovisual recordings may also be taken for the institutional communication purposes of the Interreg VI-A Italy-Slovenia 2021-2027 Programme. The legal basis for this processing is Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR, as the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and for the exercise of official authority related to the implementation of the Interreg VI-A Italy-Slovenia 2021-2027 Programme. The specific legal framework is set out in Regulation (EU) 2021/1059 and Regulation (EU) 2021/1060, which govern European Territorial Cooperation and the management of European funds. The processing is carried out in accordance with the general principles of transparency, fairness and data minimisation laid down in Article 5 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR). Personal data will be processed solely for the purposes of carrying out institutional activities and fulfilling contractual and legal obligations. Obligation to provide personal data. Consequences of refusal. Providing the data strictly necessary for the management of the event (e.g. first name, last name, e-mail/contact information) is essential to complete registration and allow participation in person; without such data, participation cannot be managed. For issuing a certificate of attendance, correct first and last name and a valid e-mail address are required; without them, the certificate cannot be issued nor sent.

	Images and recordings collected during the event are carried out for the institutional communication purposes of the Interreg VI-A Italy-Slovenia 2021-2027 Programme. Where minors are involved, or where photographs and recordings are intended for institutional communication and dissemination activities, their use will be subject to the provisions of this Privacy Notice and to the consent forms signed by the minor's parent(s) or legal guardian(s).
Persons authorised to process personal data	Personal data are made accessible to authorised employees and collaborators of the Autonomous region Friuli Venezia Giulia – Central Directorate for Finance – Specialized Operational Unit (SOU) management of EU ERDF Fund and Regional integrative Programmes (Managing Authority/Joint Secretariat of the Interreg Italy-Slovenia Programme), as well as collaborators of the Data Processors, according to the principles of correctness, lawfulness, transparency, relevance and non-excessiveness with respect to the purposes of collection and subsequent processing. Persons who process participant data are obliged to process the data in accordance with the principles of the GDPR and are therefore bound, in addition to compliance with industry regulations on privacy, to official secrecy.
Recipients or categories of recipients of personal data	Personal data collected for the purposes described above are accessible only to the Data Controller's authorised staff and to formally appointed Data Processors. For the institutional purposes related to the organisation, management, documentation and communication of the event, personal data may also be disclosed to: • entities responsible for managing the IT systems and digital infrastructure used for the event; • service providers engaged in the Programme's institutional communication activities; • the European Commission, limited to materials and results arising from activities carried out within the framework of youth-focused initiatives and the Programme's institutional communication activities; • entities collaborating in the organisation of the event, solely to the extent strictly necessary for the performance of organisational activities. Any photographs, images and audiovisual materials produced during the event may be published through the institutional channels of the Autonomous Region of Friuli Venezia Giulia and the Interreg Italy-Slovenia Programme. As a result, they may become publicly accessible, in accordance with this Privacy Notice and any consent forms signed by the data subjects.
Processing Methods	Data processing is carried out by means of computerised and telematic methods that allow the data to be stored, managed and transmitted, in any case in compliance with current legislation on the security and confidentiality of personal data. Specifically, personal data are processed solely for the following purposes: i. collection of data necessary to manage registration and participation; ii. management of contact details for the transmission of operational communications and any certificate of attendance, as well as the dissemination of institutional materials related to the event.

Personal data retention period	The personal data will be stored by the Data Controller for the period strictly necessary for the management of the event and for the fulfilment of the administrative and reporting obligations associated with the Interreg VI-A Italy-Slovenia Programme, in compliance with the regulations on the storage of administrative and digital documentation. Images and recordings published online may be acquired and reused by third parties; the Data Controller cannot technically control their further dissemination. Data used for the issuance of any certificate of attendance will be processed until the completion of related issuance and delivery activities.
Fundamental rights of the data subject	Data subjects may exercise their rights under Articles 15-21 of the GDPR within the limits set out in Chapter III: The appropriate application to the Region is made by contacting the Data Protection Officer (Data Protection Officer, Piazza dell'Unità d'Italia 1, 34121 Trieste, Italy; email: privacy@regione.fvg.it, certified e-mail: privacy@certregione.fvg.it). Data subjects who consider that personal data relating to them are being processed in breach of the provisions of the Regulation have the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority, as provided for in Article 77 of the Regulation, or to take legal action (Article 79 of the Regulation).
